Camp Information

The Fire Up Goat Camp is for anyone with an interest in meat goats. The camp will consist of breakout sessions, a youth show, a Breeder Showcase, and vendors. The camp is designed as an educational opportunity for everyone in the family. No matter the experience, campers will learn from the guest speakers, breeders, and IMGGA representatives.

Gate opens at 8:00 A.M. for campers.

A free shirt will be given to pre-registered youth campers. Extra shirts can be purchased for $10 each. Please circle your size on the registration portion of form and include payment for extra shirts.

- Campers are welcome to bring a goat with them for a hands-on learning experience.
- Health certificates/papers are required for every goat.
- Due to limited space, campers are asked to trailer their goats. If space becomes available, it will be first come first serve the day of the camp. * There is an exception for goats in the breeders showcase. If you are exhibiting a goat that is in the breeders showcase, they may be stalled.
- Please bring all supplies needed for your goat.
- All goats need to be healthy and free of any fungus or diseases.

Show Information

- The show is open to youth 18 years old and under
- The show will consist of classes for breeding does and market goats. No bucks.
- There will also be showmanship classes
- Prizes will be awarded
- IMGGA youth points chase participating show
- Each exhibitor may exhibit a total of 2 goats which could be of the same sex or combination of breeding and market.
- Fitting is up to exhibitor’s discretion
- Due to space, goats may need to be trailered.
- Health certificates/papers are required
- Pre-registration for the show is not mandatory, but please give us an idea of how many you may be bringing. Fill out as much of the goat entry form as possible (to the right).
- Substitutions are allowed the day of camp.
